

Lesson 27 Robust Vocabulary

1. beyond—Something that is beyond something else is farther away.
2. create—When you create, you use your imagination to make something new.
3. noticed—If you noticed something, you observed it carefully.
4. literature-- Stories and poems are kinds of literature.
5. award—When you do something that others think is very good, you may receive a prize or an award.
6. grand—If something is grand, it is important and wonderful.
7. accent—If people can tell where you are from by the way you speak, then you speak with an accent.
8. native—If you were born in a certain place, then you are a native of that place.
9. aspire—When you aspire to do something, you try very hard to do it.
10. accolade—When you get a special award or praise for something, you are receiving an accolade.